

Twinkl Key Information for Nefertari International School Blog

Twinkl Partners with Nefertari for an Exclusive Workshop in Egypt

On 18th August, Nefertari International School is proud to announce an exciting new collaboration with Twinkl, a global leader in educational resources. This partnership marks a significant step in our commitment to providing educators with high-quality, accessible, and affordable teaching materials, ensuring the best possible learning experience for our students.

Twinkl: Helping Those Who Teach Globally

Twinkl is a global educational publisher dedicated to equipping educators with engaging, time saving resources. For over a decade, it has been one of the world's top educational platforms, offering a vast and ever growing library of instantly downloadable materials. Created by an expert team of curriculum writers, graphic designers, and illustrators, Twinkl resources bring learning to life for teachers, parents, schools, and homeschoolers alike.

At the heart of Twinkl's mission is a simple yet powerful goal: to support all those who teach. The platform ensures that educators, no matter where they are or what they teach, feel empowered and equipped to focus on their passion—shaping young minds. Recognising the challenges educators face, Twinkl aims to ease daily pressures with ready-made, high-quality resources, helping teachers reclaim valuable time and achieve a healthier work-life balance.

With access to over one million digital and printable teaching resources—including worksheets, lesson plans, interactive games, and more—Twinkl offers instant solutions that enhance classroom experiences while reducing preparation time.

Twinkl Global Arabic Annual Workshops: Investing in Education in the Middle East

In recent years, Twinkl has placed a special focus on Egypt and the Middle East, where millions of educators rely on its resources. The Twinkl Global Arabic team, one of Twinkl's largest and most dynamic teams, is dedicated to expanding Twinkl's presence in the region and tailoring its content to meet local educational needs.

As part of this commitment, Twinkl organises an annual Global Arabic Workshop, partnering each year with leading international schools to deliver a full-day professional development event for educators. These workshops offer teachers invaluable training sessions, practical insights, and free access to the Twinkl website—ensuring they leave with both new skills and high quality resources.

Twinkl x Nefertari: A Prestigious Collaboration

This year, Twinkl is excited to join forces with Nefertari International School, renowned for its excellence in education. Together, they will host a full-day workshop open to all teachers in Egypt where they can register and book their seats.

The workshop is providing attendees with:

- Accredited certificates of attendance from Twinkl Educational Publisher.
- Free access to Twinkl's extensive resource library and services.
- Hands-on training on optimising Twinkl's tools for effective teaching

This collaboration reinforces Twinkl's dedication to enhancing Arabic education, ensuring that teachers across Egypt and beyond have the support they need to deliver outstanding learning experiences.

If you're a teacher in Egypt, this is an opportunity not to be missed! Stay tuned for more details on how to register and be part of this inspiring educational event.

Photo Bank for the Blog can be found here.